

Tracy Gauvreau Scholarship Fund

Student Application

Tracy Gauvreau was the CEO of the Temagami Public Library until her untimely passing in December 2002. She had completed a College Diploma in Early Childhood Education and then after working as an Educational Assistant at Temagami Public School decided that she wanted to attend University and obtain her teaching qualifications. Tragically Tracy was never able to achieve her goal. In her memory, the Temagami Public Library, in conjunction with the Gauvreau family and the Temagami Community Foundation, established the Tracy Gauvreau Scholarship Fund which is available to assist other students reach their goals.

To be eligible to apply for this fund, you must be in or entering the field of Early Childhood Education, Educational Assistant, or Teaching Degree programme.
